A Message from Pastor Alex....

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs." Well that is exactly what we did last month as more than 30 children joined us for Mighty Fortress VBS here at St. John's! Focusing on Bible stories such as God tumbling the walls of Jericho in Joshua 6 and Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem with the crowds waving palms and shouting "Hosanna!", the kids learned through songs, crafts, games, and even their snacks that our God is truly mighty and that in Jesus, the victory is won! Not only did the children have a lot of fun throughout the course of the week as they always do (and I always did) at VBS, but they also seemed to especially enjoy the music this year, which was evident by the fact that nearly all of them joined us for worship that following Sunday! If you weren't able to be with us that morning, you missed a wonderful performance. The kids sang their little hearts out, and they reminded us of Paul's words to the Corinthians: "Thanks be to God, who makes us winners through our Lord Jesus Christ!"

This was the fourth year that we've done Vacation Bible School at St. John's and just like I said after Jungle Safari, Bible Blast to the Past, and Deep Sea Discovery, no VBS program is possible without the help and support of the entire congregation. Your monetary gifts and donations of snacks, supplies, props, etc. enable us to offer a VBS that is both enjoyable and transformative – one that our kids will remember fondly when they think back to these summers many years from now.

First, I want to thank our amazing staff of teachers, assistants, volunteers, and chaperones who helped during the week: Katharine Forte, Allison Koehler, Susan Masciello, Bob Reckhart, Joan Pirrone, Karen Feltkamp, Anne Sheppard, Heidi Scalza, Rob Clark, Sue Ellen Coyle, Marriane Seitz, Tyler Rouse, Kaylee Palmer, Tricia and Mimi Berkowitz, Bill and Debby Lindman, and Kaitlyn, Ashley, and Jody Gavin.

There is a great deal of planning and preparation that is needed for a good VBS and this year, I was very grateful to have the assistance of Gabrielle Barry who served as our VBS co-director. Gabrielle took care of all of the paperwork, picked out the snacks and crafts, put together the photo slideshow, and so much more, all of which made my life A LOT easier this summer. Thank you, Gabrielle!

I'd also like to thank all of you who helped "behind the scenes" with decorating and setup. I don't have the space here to thank each one of you by name (and if I did, I would most surely forget someone anyway), but I do want to express my heartfelt appreciation for your time and hard work in helping us have another successful VBS program. Finally, I want to thank Dot and Vito Richetti for once again sponsoring the ice cream Sundae event on VBS Sunday after church. The ice cream was absolutely delicious and along with the slideshow and fellowship, it was the "cherry on top" of an amazing and fun-filled week.

With the conclusion of Mighty Fortress VBS, we now look forward to a new Sunday School year where the kids will learn even more about just how mighty and powerful our God truly is! This will lead them and us into Reformation Sunday on October 29th when we will all celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation and sing together: "A mighty fortress is our God, a sword and shield victorious; he breaks the cruel oppressor's rod and wins salvation glorious."

Peace +

Pastor Alex

KNITTING CIRCLE MINISTRY

Imagine this: a woman in the hospital. She has just been diagnosed with heart disease – the leading cause of death in women. She feels frightened, isolated.

Enter another woman who has been there. A heart disease survivor bearing a hand-made red scarf and a small beautiful bag covered in hearts and filled with information about managing heart disease. Someone to listen and to care.

That is the idea behind HeartScarves. Since it was founded by two women heart disease survivors in 2005, thousands of HeartScarves have found their way to thousands of women heart patients thanks to WomenHeart and its national volunteer corps of WomenHeart Champions.

Distributed in hospitals and at WomenHeart Support Network meetings throughout the country, each hand-made red scarf offers comfort, support and encouragement for a woman with heart disease, and becomes part of her healing journey.

For its Spring/Summer project, the members of St. John's Prayer Shawl Knitting/Crochet Circle chose to share their talents in a way that makes a real difference in the lives of women living with heart disease by knitting and crocheting red scarves. To date, our group has knitted or crocheted 23 scarves in various patterns which will be sent to the WomenHeart's distribution center in Gold Hill, North Carolina. Once at the distribution center, the HeartScarves will be sanitized, packaged and distributed to a WomenHeart Champion who will bring it to a newly diagnosed woman heart patient at her hospital.

God's work, our hands -- giving hope and comfort to women living with heart disease.

Please join us next month as we start our Fall project knitting and crocheting hats and scarves for Seafarers International's Christmas drive. We meet the first Tuesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. in the knotty pine room. No need to know how to knit or crochet. We can teach you!

MIGHTY FORTRESS VBS

Here Luther Stands!

No one can believe how powerful prayer is and what it can effect, except those who have learned it by experience. Whenever I have prayed earnestly, I have been heard and have obtained more than I prayed for. God sometimes delays, but He always comes.

Gold standard: Lynbrook resident wins lacrosse national championship

By MIKE SMOLLINS

mismollins@liherald.com

A Lynbrook resident and her IGLOO 2023 lacrosse team won the gold medal at the U.S. Lacrosse national championship in the 12 and under division in Richmond, Va. last month.

Emilia “Mimi” Berkowitz, 12, who is an honor role student at Lynbrook South Middle School and is going into seventh grade, had a strong tournament. U.S. Lacrosse serves as the biggest stage for youth lacrosse, with over 450,000 members nationwide and more than 68 chapters in 45 states. The tournament was likened to the Super Bowl of youth lacrosse.

“It was really amazing,” Mimi said. “I felt really accomplished. ... Not only did I learn so much from that whole tournament, but my team just definitely learned more about working together.”

Mimi notched four assists and six points against the reigning champion Long Island Yellow Jackets in the semi-finals. She picked up a helper on the game’s opening goal and scored the second and third tallies of the contest en route to a 9-4 victory. She was strong on both sides of the ball, winning ground ball battles and wreaking havoc on defense by causing turnovers. She also recorded an assist on the game-winning goal.

During the championship game against NXT 2023, a team from Pennsylvania, Mimi received a penalty shot after being fouled. Rather than shoot the ball, she elected to pass it to her teammate, who scored, earning Mimi an assist. She also was instrumental in helping to clear the ball throughout the game, and captured many ground balls. Her team overcame a 3-0 first-half deficit and went on to win, 7-3.

With the gold medal secured, the IGLOO 2023 team earned an automatic bid into next year’s 13 and under national championship, where they will defend their crown. The 2018 tournament is scheduled to take place from Aug. 2 through 5 in Delaware.

To celebrate the championship, the team gathered at one player’s house for a pool party, Mimi said. “This team is probably the best lacrosse experience I’ve ever had,” she added.

- C → Challenging, Luther's treatises with introductions and annotations

Martin Luther: His Life

Luther's life and times come alive in the following biographies and a stunning pictorial atlas.

E When Lightning Struck: The Story of Martin Luther

by Danika Cooley

Written specifically with teen readers and adults new to Luther in mind. In the style of a fast-paced, action-packed novel. hc, 264 pp.

M Luther the Reformer: The Story of the Man and His Career, Second Edition

by James M. Kittelson and Hans H. Wiersma

This best-selling biography provides a great resource for delving into the depths of the Reformer without drowning in a sea of scholarly concerns. In this second edition, Hans H. Wiersma has made an outstanding text even better with a revised text including new images, bibliographies, and timelines to enhance the experience. pb, 316 pp.

M Resilient Reformer: The Life and Thought of Martin Luther

by Timothy F. Lull and Derek R. Nelson

In this new biography, Luther is an energetic, resilient actor, driven by very human strengths and failings. Luther is portrayed more as a loud tenor in the Reformation chorus than as a solo voice of dissent against the church and empire. pb, 411 pp.

E Papa Luther: A Graphic Novel

by graphic novelist Daniel D. Maurer with illustrations by Caitlin Liko

This full-color graphic novel—or comic book—for children ages 8 to 13, is also suitable for older youth (and more than a few adults, too!). Papa Luther tells the story of Martin Luther and the Reformation as seen through the eyes of his children. Perfect for individual reading, as well as in small or large group studies. A leader guide is also available as a digital download. pb, 88 pp.

E Atlas of the European Reformations

by Tim Dowley

This new, definitive atlas provides a remarkably clear view of the broader Reformation scene. Features color images, timelines, and commentary to go with 60 beautiful and informative maps. Especially useful for group study. An online study guide is available for use with younger students and confirmation. pb, 160 pp.

E The Life of Martin Luther: A Pop-Up Book

by Agostino Traini

The story of Martin Luther and his role in sparking the Protestant Reformation is given an interactive retelling in this beautiful and sturdy pop-up book—perfect for kids of all ages! hc, 11 pp.

Martin Luther: His Writings

Explore Luther's own key writings with guidance from top Luther scholars.

M Martin Luther's Ninety-Five Theses: With Introduction, Commentary, and Study Guide

by Timothy J. Wengert

One of the best-known interpreters of Luther today helps set this important document in its historical context alongside Luther's popular Sermon on Indulgences and Grace and his Letter to Archbishop Adrecht. The introduction and annotations are a treasure trove of information, and the study guide makes this a great resource for group reflection and discussion. pb, 102pp.

M-C The Annotated Luther series

Six volumes featuring several of Luther's most important writings have been gathered and annotated by experts on Luther, Lutheran theology, and the Reformation. Volumes feature new Introductions to Luther's writings, several annotations, and multiple images—with the express intent of making Luther's writings more readable and accessible, he

The Annotated Luther Study Editions

To make the writings included in The Annotated Luther series (above) even more accessible, several of the key treatises in the series have been broken out into individual volumes. The same introductions, annotations, and images are included in the Study Editions below.

M The Freedom of a Christian, 1520

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by Timothy J. Wengert

Perhaps the most widely read of Luther's writings and a great introduction to his theology. pb, 88 pp.

M-C The Large Catechism of Dr. Martin Luther, 1529

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by Kiri L. Sijerna

This impressive expansion of Luther's widely read Small Catechism offers his seminal teachings on the Ten Commandments, Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Sacraments, and more. pb, 154 pp.

M-C Treatise on Good Works, 1520

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by Timothy J. Wengert

Luther's transformational idea of justification by faith alone was misrepresented in the early years of the Reformation. In this treatise, Luther sets out to clarify the biblical foundation of good works. pb, 124 pp.

C To the Christian Nobility of the German Nation, 1520

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by James M. Estes

After several appeals to church authorities for reform, in this treatise Luther appeals to secular authorities for help with the reform. He urges kings, princes, nobility, cities, and communities to take the steps toward reform with the hope that church leaders would follow. pb, 112 pp.

C The Babylonian Captivity of the Church, 1520

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by Erik H. Herrmann

In this treatise, Luther positively aims to reconsider the meaning of sacraments for Christian life. His thesis is that the papacy had distorted the sacraments with its own traditions and regulations. pb, 138 pp.

C The Bondage of the Will, 1525

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by Volker Leppin

Luther engages in serious intellectual debate with Erasmus on Holy Scripture, free will, and the doctrine of God. pb, 122 pp.

M Little Prayer Book, 1522, and A Simple Way to Pray, 1535

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by Mary Jane Haemig and Eric Lund

In Little Prayer Book, 1522, Luther seeks to reform the theology and practice of prayer in clear and understandable language for all people by encouraging simple, direct prayer to God. In A Simple Way to Pray, 1535, Luther offers his barber and all other readers insights into his own prayer life. pb, 86 pp.

M The Small Catechism, 1529

by Martin Luther with introduction and annotations by Timothy J. Wengert

Luther's Small Catechism explains the basics of Christian faith in a way resonant with his understanding of justification by faith, which also implied, for Luther, the proper distinction between law and gospel. This is applied to his explanations of the parts of the Catechism. pb, 68 pp.

Martin Luther: For Reflection

Read Luther devotionally and reflect on his understanding of Christian vocation.

E Luther's Small Catechism Anniversary Study Edition

by Martin Luther; edited by Timothy J. Wengert

A translation of Luther's explanations along with other catechetical study helps, such as prayers, worship rites, and Luther's introduction. The Anniversary Study Edition features a new cover design, new illustrations by Roman Catholic artist Gertrud Mueller Nelson, and a letter from Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton. pb, 88 pp.

E Day by Day We Magnify You: Daily Readings for the Entire Year, Revised Edition

by Martin Luther; compiled and edited by Marshall D. Johnson

Readings from Luther's sermons and other works are arranged according to the church year and organized under a central theme for each week. Each daily meditation includes a prayer, bible verse, or question to ponder. pb, 440 pp.

E 40-Day Journey with Martin Luther

by Martin Luther; compiled and edited by Gracia M. Grindal

Forty inspiring passages raise profound truths about faith and life. Includes short introduction to Luther's life, journal-writing exercises, and daily prayers. A great option for Advent and Lent study and reflection.

pb, 112 pp.

M Martin Luther and the Called Life

by Mark D. Trarvik

One of the hallmarks of Luther's theology was his concern for daily Christian life. From this concern emerged Luther's own powerful sense of vocation. The book encourages readers to explore what this sense of vocation and calling might mean for their lives. Study questions included to encourage group discussion. pb, 186pp

M The Wit of Martin Luther

by Eric W. Gritsch

Ties Luther's wit and humor to his sharp, polemical exploitation of the absurd or incongruous in service to his Reform. At a deeper level, Luther's wit and witticisms reflected his keen appreciation of human frailty and the unknowability of things divine. pb, 144 pp.

M Martin Luther's Table Talk

edited by Henry F. French

Luther's friends took notes of many private conversations around the Luther family table, and now you can join them, too. Pull up a chair and spend some time with the great reformer.

pb, 200 pp.

E Martin Luther's Christmas Book

by Martin Luther; edited by Roland H. Bainton

This inspiring collection contains thirty excerpts from Martin Luther's Christmas sermons and nine elegant illustrations by Luther's contemporaries. This treasure is the perfect way to celebrate Christmas in light of the Reformation. 500 anniversary! pb, 88 pp.

M Luther's Prayers

by Martin Luther; edited by Herbert Brokering

Martin Luther's powerful prayers explore topics spanning all of life: the soldier, employer, politician, pastor, sick person, parent, newlywed, teacher. Five hundred years later, these prayers still ring true, calling us into an ever-closer relationship with God. pb, 120 pp.

Reformation at 500

Explore how the Reformation continues to impact the church and consider ways Catholics and Lutherans can continue to journey together toward unity.

M Together by Grace: Introducing the Lutherans

edited by Kathryn A. Kleinhans

Serves as a rich resource book for getting to know who Lutherans are, what they teach, where they come from, and where they are today. Includes sections on Lutheran basics, Lutheran history and practice, and a wide range of stories from the global Lutheran family. More than thirty contributors—teachers, pastors, bishops, activists, and global Lutherans—have written for this resource. Together by Grace can be read “cover to cover” by individuals, or each section can be used as a session for small or large group studies. A leader guide is also available as a digital download. pb, 216 pp.

E-M Declaration on the Way: Church, Ministry, and Eucharist

by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

This study celebrates fifty years of international and regional Lutheran-Catholic dialogues and harvests the results of those efforts into Statements of Agreement on church, ministry, and eucharist. Though this is a declaration “on the way,” the study offers some possible ways forward and encourages Catholics and Lutherans to continue their journey together toward unity. Read and discuss Declaration on the Way in adult study groups. pb, 144 pp.

E-M One Hope: Re-Membering the Body of Christ

by Julie K. Asgeson, John Borelli, John Klassen, Derek H. Nelson, Martha Stortz, and Jessica Wroblewski

A rich ecumenical resource designed to help Catholic and Lutheran communities mark the approaching 500th anniversary of the Reformation. The essays here are the product of an intense collaborative process by six gifted scholars and pastoral leaders, three Lutheran and three Catholic. pb, 104 pp.
