A Message from Pastor Alex...

At the end of this month, millions of people around the world will celebrate the 500th anniversary of the famous event that sparked the Protestant Reformation: Martin Luther's posting of the Ninety-Five Theses. When Luther nailed his Disputation on the Power and Efficacy of Indulgences to the door of the Wittenberg Castle Church, he did so as a call for debate, challenging not only the sale of indulgences, but various other practices and beliefs within the Catholic Church as well. This bold act launched Luther into the public eye and set off a series of events that would ultimately lead to what we now refer to as the Reformation.

Even so, you still might be wondering why we're making such a big deal about this historic anniversary. Sure, it's been a lot of fun taking pictures with our "traveling Luthers", and you may have even ordered a book or two from the Reformation 500 book sale that we had a few weeks ago. If you're like me, you'll come to church on the 29th proudly wearing you're Lutheran red and ready to sing A Mighty Fortress!

But what exactly are we celebrating? Are we simply commemorating "our roots" and honoring this beloved historical figure who we've named ourselves after? 500 is a nice big number, but 500 years is quite a long time ago, and obviously our world is much different now than it was back in Luther's time. Does the Reformation still have anything relevant to teach us in our 21st century context?

I've heard it said that the Christian church is way overdue for another Reformation. With membership and attendance in steep decline and more and more people claiming no religious affiliation, the church nowadays seems less relevant and important than ever before, and for us, Christians, it feels like our communities are changing faster than we can keep up! We've seen this firsthand with our brothers and sisters in Cedarhurst, but we've also felt the effects here at St. John's, especially in the last ten years.

So what have we done? How have we responded? We've looked to Luther! You see, Martin Luther believed that as a human institution, the Christian church was neither perfect nor inerrant. We are made saints through baptism, but we are also born sinners, which means we make mistakes and sometimes we get stuck in our ways.

Therefore, while the gospel will always remain steadfast and everlasting, the church must continually be changing and reforming – evaluating everything that we do (including those things that “we’ve always done!”) and learning to adapt to new times and new challenges.

Back in the summer of 2015, St. John’s and Incarnation began a conversation about a new way of doing God’s work and being church together. There were many questions, challenges, and uncertainties throughout this journey, but we trusted that the Spirit was indeed at work and guiding us the entire way. Well, after two years of meetings, dialogue, and numerous evaluations, this past Tuesday the Synod Council of the Metropolitan NY Synod unanimously approved our proposal for merger! Our merger will now be submitted to the Attorney General of NY and once it is officially approved, we will begin a new chapter as a new congregation: St. John – Incarnation Lutheran Church.

On this 500th anniversary of the Reformation, let us praise God with joyful hearts as we celebrate both of our storied pasts and all the exciting possibilities of our future together!

See you in worship,

Pastor Alex

No one can believe how powerful prayer is and what it can effect, except those who have learned it by experience. Whenever I have prayed earnestly, I have been heard and have obtained more than I prayed for. God sometimes delays, but He always comes.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION FROM THE ELCA FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Dear friends in Christ,

As the ELCA Federal Credit Union enters our second year, we are delighted to begin offering savings accounts and certificates of deposit to ELCA congregations and related ministries.

Throughout our first year as the ELCA's newest financial ministry, we have been helping ELCA members and employees realize significant savings on loans and lines of credit, while offering the full electronic access members expect today.

Now your congregation is eligible to join our new financial cooperative. You, too, as an individual member of the ELCA, are eligible to join our credit union and take advantage of more competitive rates, fewer fees and enhanced services. Credit unions can offer these benefits to members because, as not-for-profit financial cooperatives, we return profits directly to members. In fact, in our first year of operation, we've saved individual members an average of nearly $1,500 in finance charges over the life of their loans, compared with outside lenders.

We're excited about the positive financial impact we're having for our members. To apply for membership for yourself or your congregation—or to learn more about our products and services

HELP KEEP OUR KIDS SAFE THIS HALLOWEEN WITH THE TEAL PUMPKIN PROJECT!

FARE's Teal Pumpkin Project® - is a wonderful campaign. The Teal Pumpkin Project raises awareness of food allergies and promotes a safer, happier Halloween by encouraging households to make non-food treats available so that trick-or-treaters who need to avoid candy – due to food allergies or other reasons – can fully participate. Households can show they are participating by placing a teal pumpkin in front of their home.

This project encourages everyone to be inclusive of our neighbors and support those children/parents for whom Halloween in its traditional form is a stressful and potentially harmful event and while kids could just sit at home, missing out can be painful too.

Last year, households around the world participated in the Teal Pumpkin Project. Visit tealpumpkinproject.org to learn more.
