A Message from Pastor Jeff Laustsen ~

“And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.” – Matthew 2:12

It isn't very often that the first Sunday of a new year is January 6, the day we celebrate the Epiphany of our Lord with the story of the Wise Men who came to Bethlehem asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.” (Matthew 2:2). These Magi from the East (Matthew's Gospel does not give a number; our tradition of Three Kings comes from the gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh that brought; some traditions even give them the names Casper, Balthazar, and Melchior) come to find the child born of Mary to pay respect to the one they identify as the Savior of all nations. They recognize that Jesus has been born so that God's promises might be fulfilled to all who believe that the Christ child is their Lord; for “to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God...” (John 1:12).

Our Epiphany Gospel ends with the report that after the Magi found the child of Mary and presented their gifts, they returned home by another road after having been warned not to return to Herod, whose murderous intentions will be revealed in Matthew 2:16-18 (warning: this is a very disturbing story, but a reminder of the evil world into which our Savior was born). They journeyed upon another road in order not to be detected by Herod's soldiers, but they also journeyed along a different route because their lives had been forever changed because they had been in the presence of the one who was born King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the child who would change the course of history through his death and resurrection, the Redeemer who promises a new and wondrous life for all who would follow the different path of discipleship our Lord invites us to journey. The road upon which the Magi traveled was not merely another way back to their former lives; it was a new path they journeyed into a transformed life because they had been in the presence of the Lord of all nations.

On the first Sunday of this New Year, we are invited to join the Wise Men in paying homage to the child of Mary who was born to be the Savior of all peoples and all nations. We are invited to kneel before the manger and consider what it means that “to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord.” (Luke 2:11). And like the Magi, we are invited to travel along a different path than the one that brought us here; for every time we come into the Lord's presence, we are invited to travel along another road, one that leads us “in paths of righteousness for his name's sake” as we follow our Lord Jesus Christ in his journey of discipleship. It's a road that isn't always easy, and might even be fraught with danger and uncertainty, but we know its destination: our eternal home, where as “surely as goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life... I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.” (Psalm 23).

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Jeff Laustsen

W.E.L.C.A. Holiday Luncheon

The W.E.L.C.A. Holiday Luncheon was well attended and a great success. Thank you for the generous gifts that helped fill the food pantry and our Discretionary Fund. ## Christmas Caroling

Many thanks to you and your intrepid group of carolers who braved the elements on Sunday night, December 15th! What a joy it was to hear the familiar Christmas Hymns, with a Happy Birthday included and to top it off, a gingerbread house made by the young people!

What a wonderful caring congregation we have at St. John's

Bill and Annette Benson

Ten members from St. John's Lutheran Church just left my home after making me feel so good inside. It seems that my church family, who seem to appreciate me, pays all that I have done in the past back. To see 10 members of the Youth Group in my living room singing Christmas Carols brings great joy to my heart. God bless them for coming out on a rainy night to make someone feel the working of the Holy Spirit. I've heard how some of the homebound in the past have appreciated such an event and now I understand. Thank you to the Youth Group of St. John's.

God Bless You. Bob Koehler

Christmas-at-Sea Program

For the fourth year, St. John's brought joy to seafarers who would not be home with their families for Christmas.

We supported the Christmas-at-Sea program run by Seafarers International, a Lutheran organization. We collected 40 bags of clothing, snacks and greetings that port chaplains deliver to the seafarers they meet in port prior to Christmas. In addition, this year we donated $100 from our Harvest Festival profit. With all the troubles we have had with hurricane Sandy, and with all the troubles that is happening in the world, it is really special that we can think of others in this way. Feel the Holy Spirit working within us. May God continue to bless us individually and as a Congregation!

Peace and Love, Evangelism Committee

Messenger 100th Anniversary Review

1912-2012

Over the past year we have been celebrating the 100th Anniversary of our church. It has been an exciting year starting off with our Kick-Off Sunday on Sept. 25, 2011.

"Our Church Bell" which was gifted to St. John's in 1934, was rung for the first time in our narthex in honor of the 100th Anniversary.

At our coffee hour we received citations and good wishes from Mayor William Hendricks, Assemblyman Brian Curran, and Chris Shelton for Councilman Anthony Santino.

In December the Bel Canto Chorale performed "Choose Something Like a Star" in the church in honor of Betty Johnson who was our organist and choir director for 32 years.

The celebration continued in 2012 with History Sunday in February which included bulletin boards, displays filled with history, and a slide show presentation of St. John's different activities, Pastors and the construction of the church. In March an interfaith service was held with the Girl Scout Troops in our area who were also celebrating their 100th Anniversary.

In May, St. John's marched in the Lynbrook Memorial Day parade handing out water to those along the route.

In June an awesome church service was held in Greis Park followed by wonderful old-fashioned church picnic.

Also in June The Rev. Rebecca J. Fetters resigned after her husband The Rev. Andrew Fetters accepted a call in Wisconsin.

On September 30, 2012 a wonderful year of celebration came to an end with Bishop Robert Alan Rimbo who is the Bishop of the Metropolitan New York Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America leading us in worship with the assistance of Pastor Noto. The reception at Pompei brought together family, friends, and honored guests. The history of the church, slideshow presentation, and music all added to the festivities. Citations from Supervisor Kate Murray, Senior Councilman Anthony Santino, and New York State Assemblyman Brian Curran were presented. As was stated in a thank you letter received from a former member, "Thanks so much for inviting us to St. John's big celebration-we had a wonderful time and I was so happy to see a number of people I hadn't seen in quite some time and also meeting a number of others."

Thanks to Florence Ward Williams, Jan Arena, Grace West, and Barbara Leahy for contributing monetarily to the celebration. So many hands have helped to make this year a memorable year for St. John's. Thank you to all who have contributed your time, talents, and untiring efforts to make this a wonderful year of celebration. With your continued help and support, St. John's will continue on for another 100 years.

When you think about all of the people who have served on committees and the different ministries of the church to keep the work of "Sharing God's Love" in our community and the wider church for so many years, we should count our blessings. As we pass this milestone and move forward to the next years in St. John's history we must recognize the need for dedicated members and friends to keep this ministry alive.

Remember "Open Sunday!" is not the only day that God's work is being done at St. John's. Our ministries are being carried out during the week as well. Stay involved and give a helping hand. As is written in the Bible:

"But Jesus looked at them and said to them, with men this is impossible, but with 'God all things are possible.'" Matthew 19:26

May God Bless You All,

Dorothy Criscuolo & Joan Pirrone
